2016 Operation Blue Force—Haytools Spring Training Camp

This Spring, Tom Raska and Shawn Short travelled down to Tampa, Florida for a Spring Training Camp to learn about all the great new features in the 2016 New Holland Hay Tools lineup. They were also able to learn about some improvements on previous models to assist farms in their hay productivity.

Kuhn Manufacturing also hosted a spring haytools training in Phoenix, Arizona that Tom Raska attended. He got some hands on experience with the 2016 models and all their features as well as learning more about previous Kuhn haytools.

We look forward to helping you through this upcoming hay season and would enjoy the opportunity to share our new information with you and your hay operation!
